#210 Welcoming, Caring, Respectful, and Safe Learning and Working Environments

POLICY STATEMENT

The Board of Directors is committed to providing students and staff with a welcoming, caring, respectful, and safe learning and working environment that fosters a sense of belonging, nurtures a positive sense of self, respects diversity, and promotes well-being in all its aspects.

In accordance with this commitment, the Board does not condone behaviours that constitute bullying, harassment, sexual harassment, discrimination, or violence, and expects allegations of such behaviours to be investigated and addressed in a timely and thorough manner, as warranted by the circumstance.

Further, the Board affirms the rights, as expressed in the Alberta Human Rights Act and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, of each student enrolled in the school and each staff member employed by the New Horizons Charter School Society. Accordingly, the Board believes that the school environment must be free from discrimination based on race, religious beliefs, colour, gender, gender identity, gender expression, physical disability, mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status, or sexual orientation.

The Superintendent is responsible for the development and implementation of practices and procedures that are consistent with this policy.

2. In this policy, “harassment” means unwelcome verbal or physical conduct, including conduct that relates to discrimination. Usually, it must be repeated to constitute harassment, but single acts can be harassing if they are severe, or involve obvious power imbalance. Harassment is insulting, demeaning or intimidating. Examples of harassment include, but are not limited to, the following: verbal or physical abuse; threats; derogatory remarks; jokes; innuendo or taunts about appearance or beliefs; display or electronic transfer of unreasonable invasion of one’s person. Harassment can be bullying or outright physical assault. The behaviour giving rise to a complaint need not be intentional in order to be considered harassment; it is sufficient that the offender knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the behaviour is offensive and unwelcome.
3. In this policy, “sexual harassment” means any unwelcome behaviour that is sexual in nature. Unwanted sexual advances, unwanted requests for sexual acts, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when the harasser knows or ought to know that it is unwelcome. Sexual harassment includes such things as unwanted touching (e.g. pinching, patting, rubbing); leering, sexist, or “dirty” jokes; the display of sexually suggestive material; derogatory or

4. In this policy, “discrimination” means the unjust or prejudicial treatment of a person or class of persons because of the race, religious beliefs, colour, gender, gender identity, gender expression, physical disability, mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status, or sexual orientation of that person or class of persons.
5. In this policy, “violence” means the threatened, attempted, or actual conduct of a person that is intended to cause, causes, or is likely to cause injury to a person or damage to property. Examples include, but are not limited to, the following: destroying property, throwing objects at others, verbal or written threats that express and intent to inflict harm, physical attacks, or any other act that would arouse fear in a reasonable person in the circumstance.
