NEW HORIZONS CHARTER SCHOOL SOCIETY

DECLARATION OF UNDERSTANDING

The New Horizons Charter School Society (NHCSS) is a non-profit charitable organization dedicated to operating New Horizons School, a school for academically gifted children. The Society is governed by an elected Board of Directors and this Board is the governing body of New Horizons School. Parents/guardians, as defined in the School Act, Family Law Act and any statute that may be substituted therefore, of students attending New Horizons School have the right to membership in the Society without paying a membership fee. Other persons may become Community Members by paying a membership fee and subject to Board approval.

As a member of the NHCSS, I understand that I have a right to stand for election to the Board of Directors, the right to speak at Board and Society Meetings, the right to vote on Special Resolutions at General Meetings of the Society, and the right to request the addition of agenda items for Board Meetings. I understand these rights and other terms of membership are detailed in the NHCSS Bylaws.

As a member of the Society, I understand that I have a responsibility to be an active, informed and supportive participant in Society affairs as they relate to New Horizons School.

I agree with the statements contained in this document, and understanding the rights and responsibilities involved, wish to become a member of the New Horizons Charter School Society. I declare my support for the NHCSS and I agree to act in accordance with the Society Bylaws.
